

EAST INDIA DRUMS & BARRELS MANUFACTURING LIMITED

DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION POLICY

1. Objective

The objective of this Policy is to ensure the right balance between the quantum of Dividend paid and amount of profits retained in the business for various purposes. Towards this, the Policy lays down parameters to be considered by the Board of Directors of the Company for declaration of Dividend from time to time.

2. Philosophy

The philosophy of the Company is to enhance value of all stakeholders which includes maximizing the shareholders' wealth in the Company. The Company believes that driving profitable growth creates maximum shareholder value and also serves intent of other stakeholders. Thus, the Company would first utilize its profits for working capital requirements, capital expenditure to meet expansion needs, reducing debt from its books of accounts, earmarking reserves for inorganic growth opportunities and thereafter distributing the surplus profits in the form of dividend to the shareholders.

3. Legal Framework

The Companies Act, 2013 lays down certain provisions for declaration of dividend, which are:

- i) Section 51 permits Companies to pay dividends proportionately i.e. in proportion to the amount paid-up on each share when all shares are not uniformly paid-up i.e. pro-rata. Pro rata means in proportion or proportionately, according to a certain rate. The Board of Directors of the Company may decide to pay dividends on pro-rata basis if all the equity shares of the company are not equally paid-up. However, in the case of preference shares, dividend shall be paid at a fixed rate as per the terms of issue.

The permission given by this Section is, however, conditional upon the Company's articles of association expressly authorizing the Company in this regard.

- ii) Final Dividend is generally declared at an annual general meeting [Section 102(2)] at a rate not more than what is recommended by the Board in accordance with the articles of association of a Company.
- iii) An interim dividend is declared by the Board at any time before the closure of financial year, whereas a final dividend is declared by the members of a Company at its annual general meeting if and only if the same has been recommended by the Board of Directors of the Company.

- iv) In accordance with Section 134(3) (k), Board of Directors shall state in the Directors' Report the amount of dividend, if any, which it recommends to be paid. The dividend recommended by the Board of Directors in the Board's Report must be 'declared' at the annual general meeting of the company. This constitutes an item of ordinary business to be transacted at every annual general meeting. This does not apply to interim dividend.
- v) No dividend shall be declared or paid by the Company for any financial year except out of the profits of the Company for that year arrived at after providing for depreciation in accordance with Section 123 (2) of the Act or out of profits of the Company for any previous financial year/years arrived at after providing for depreciation in accordance with the provisions of above sub-Section and remaining undistributed or out of both or out of moneys provided by the Central Government or a State Government for payment of dividend in pursuance of a guarantee given by the concerned Government [Section 123(1)].
- vi) The Company may before the declaration of any dividend in any financial year, transfer such percentage of its profits for that financial year as it may consider appropriate to the reserves of the Company.
- vii) If owing to inadequacy or absence of profits in any year, the Company proposes to declare dividend out of the accumulated profits earned by it in any previous financial years and transferred to reserves, such declaration of dividend shall not be made except in accordance with the Companies (Declaration and Payment of Dividend) Rules, 2014. No dividend shall be declared or paid by the Company from its reserves other than free reserves. Further the Company shall not declare dividend unless carried over previous losses and depreciation not provided in the previous year / years are set off against the profit of the company for the current year.
- viii) Depreciation, as required under Section 123(1) of the Companies Act has to be provided in accordance with the provisions of Schedule II to the Act.
- ix) If the Company fails to comply with Section 73 and 74 of the Companies Act, relating to acceptance & repayment of deposits, no dividend shall be declared on its equity shares till such default continues.
- x) The amount of dividend (final as well as interim) shall be deposited in a separate bank account within 5 days from the date of declaration. [Section 123(4)]
- xi) Dividend has to be paid within 30 days from the date of declaration.
- xii) Section 24 of the Companies Act, 2013 confers on SEBI, the power of administration of the provisions pertaining to non-payment of dividend.

- xiii) If dividend has not been paid or claimed within the 30 days from the date of its declaration, the Company shall transfer the total amount of dividend, which remains unpaid or unclaimed, to a special account to be opened by the Company in a scheduled bank to be called “Unpaid Dividend Account”. Such transfer shall be made within 7 days from the date of expiry of the said period of 30 days.
- xiv) Any money transferred to the unpaid dividend account of a Company in pursuance of Section 124 which remains unpaid or unclaimed for a period of seven years from the date of such transfer shall be transferred by the company to the Investor Education and Protection Fund along with shares on which dividend has been unclaimed for a period of seven year.
- xv) Any dividend payable in cash may be paid by cheque or warrant through post directed to the registered address of the shareholder who is entitled to the payment of the dividend or to his order or in any electronic mode sent to his banker. [Section 123(5)]
